Mount Vesuvius. NAPLES, Jan. 4, 1868.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius, which was described some few days since as becoming still more intense grand, is just now quite alarming. The whole of the volcano is in violent action, and flames issue not only from the old crater and many new openings to the air, but it continues to blaze after its ejection. A slight subsidence of the volcanic motion had taken place, and on Monday, the 9th of December, the mountain remained almost quiescent, its sides being covered to a great extent with snow. A heavy colored smoke issued from what the savans term the "smoke holes," old and new. Tuesday night, the eruption was resumed with great force, and a mass of lava, resembling a solid rock, was shot from the crater to a great height, and, as seen from this city, rolled down the sides of the great cone after falling. A loud roar, as if of artillery, was heard during the entire night. The mountain was veiled in darkness long after the hour of daybreak next morning. As the forenoon advanced a strong wind sprung up from the north and dispelled the gloom, and Vesuvius has been witnessed in its fiery daily grandeur since. To day a perfect river of fire is seen to flow from the mountain, running in a westerly direction. The fiery flood is nearing the town of Cercala. The upheavings of the volcano are attended with DECEMBER. shocks resembling those of an earthquake, and loud detonations, as if a battery of heavy guns in full play, are heard. A perfect panic prevails among the inhabitants of all the

A SINGULAR LIBEL CASE.—The Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, in a letter to that journal, dated January 3rd, says: "Quite an excitement was created here today by the arrest of a man named Peter Sieber. for the publication and distribution of a slanderous book, professing to be a secret and reliable directory of defaulters and swindlers in Harrisburg, Lebanon and Reading, under the title of "The Fressall and Paynix Detective :-A black list, issued at the earnest solicitation of our principal business men and women.— Published by Fressnik & Payall, United States of America." [Fressall and Paynix means cat all and pay nothing. The book contains nearly two thousand names, including hundreds of the best business men and citizens of Harrisburg, both dead and alive, with slanderous remarks as to their dishonesty in business transactions. Sieber is a man of some standing, with respectable connections in Reading. He confessed that he canvassed the country, collected the names from various agents and informants, had the work published in Philadelphia, and sold a large number of copies to business men at two dol-

The Mayor's office was crowded with indignant citizens, whose names appear in the book. Sieber was bound over in $1,000 bail to appear at the next term of Court. Samuel H. Ettis, charged as being Sieber's agent here, was also bound over in $1,000, and shortly after leaving the Mayor's office he was met at the gate of the State Capitol Park on State st., attacked, knocked down and cowhided by Maj. Chas. C. Davis, one of the slandered parties.— Davis was also bound over. Sieber immediately disappeared, in fear of violence at the hands of the people, most of whom, however, will await their redress at the hands of justice.

HAYTI.—In Hayti the blacks have had every opportunity and every incentive for demonstrating their capacity for self-government and civilization. And yet we find, under the thin varnish of a semi-christianized exterior, the same brutal passions which distinguish the governments of old Calabar river and Dahomey .-Gen. Leon Montes, a captive revolutionist, has been poisoned, and then knocked on the head with a crowbar, by his jailor. In this atrocious murder it is reported that President Salnave is an accomplice. Universal alarm and discontent reigned at the capital, and foreigners were flying to Jamaica for safety. In addition to this comes the rumor that six millions of counterfeit paper dollars are in circulation in Hayti, and that the Government connives at this fraud also. Salnave left November 20th on a tour of inspection among his arsenals and powder magazines, and was evidently preparing new horrors for his political opponents. Salnave is a full-blooded negro, and has been represented as trying to give to the world a specimen of negro government, at its best, with everything in its favor. We shall now have a chance to see in the future of Hayti, as we have seen in its past, how little aptitude the negro race has for its own advancement; and we trust that the lesson will not be lost upon those who, at the safe distance of New York and New England, are looking with philosophical serenity upon the institution of similar experiments in the Southern States. - N. Y. J. of Com.

WHAT OUR BABY DID.—The other day, Nettie was eighteen months old, and she cele brated the event in the following style, with a regularity and promptness which almost defies competition: 1st, Upset a quart of milk upon her bran new flannel gown; 2d, Put the hairbrush in the sloppail; 3d, Took a spoon from the table and plastered the carpet and floor with soft lard, and then wiped it off with the clean dress just put upon her; 4th, She did not "string spools on the cat's tail" but took another form of expressing her devotion to that pet, by trying to cram it into her father's boot; 5th, Found her way into the pantry and upset the kerosene into a pan of meal that had just been sitted for use; and, to cap the climax, greased her little red shoes with the mixture; 6th, Ate some bread and milk and went off to sleep. These things were done in spite of careful watching and (as we have since learned by experience) is but a fair sample of her everyday life. Babies are mischievous! What can a mother do with three or four little fellows at a time and keep the house in order? We've resolved never to find fault it supper isn't ready just at the right time.—[Mouroe (Wis.) received and for sale at FRENCHS, 95 King street. Subscriptions received at publishers prices. ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropri ty .-Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability. Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death. DR. JOHNSON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospit als of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and soli-tary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, socie-

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Neryous Irritable ity, Derangement of the Digestive Functions. General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, & c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory. Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity. &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now udge what is the course of their declining health, osing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, neryous and emac ated, having a singular appear ance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN, Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at chool, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when as eep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain se-eret habit. Such persons must, before contem-

MARRIAGE, effect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prosp ct hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the sceds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, a cturnal pains in the head and limbs. dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones f the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiss ration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufterings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from we ence no traveller returns"

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MER-
